

Get HBO Max Standard with Ads included at no extra cost when the whole family is on Vodafone SuperMobile Offer (the Offer) Terms and Conditions

Effective from 21.10.26

1. About this Offer

1.1 These terms apply to the HBO Max Standard with Ads benefit (the “Offer”) available to eligible Vodafone customers through Vodafone Together. The Offer provides one HBO Max Standard with Ads subscription where there are at least three active Vodafone SuperMobile plans on the same Vodafone account.

1.2 By taking, activating or using the Offer, you agree to these terms, the Vodafone Together Terms and Conditions, the Vodafone Airtime Terms and Conditions applicable to your Vodafone SuperMobile plans, and the HBO Max Terms of Use hbomax.com/terms-of-use

1.3 The Vodafone Together Terms and Conditions and Vodafone Airtime Terms and Conditions form part of these terms and can be found at vodafone.co.uk/terms. Follow the relevant links and navigation on that page to find the terms that apply to your services and this Offer.

1.4 The HBO Max Terms of Use will be made available during HBO Max account creation and activation.

1.5 If these terms conflict with the Vodafone Together Terms and Conditions or Vodafone Airtime Terms and Conditions, these terms take precedence for this Offer. The HBO Max Terms of Use apply to your use of HBO Max.

2. Who is eligible?

2.1 To qualify, you must:

- (a) be aged 18 or over;
- (b) have at least three active Vodafone SuperMobile airtime plans on the same Vodafone account;
- (c) meet the Vodafone Together eligibility requirements; and
- (d) continue to meet those requirements while using the Offer.

2.2 Only one HBO Max subscription is available under this Offer per qualifying Vodafone account, regardless of how many eligible Vodafone SuperMobile plans are on that account. If your Vodafone account already includes an HBO Max subscription through Vodafone TV or another Vodafone service, you may still qualify for the Offer, but you will not receive an additional HBO Max subscription. We will explain how the Offer applies to your existing subscription as part of the activation journey.

2.3 Once your eligibility has been confirmed after checkout, the Offer will be allocated to an eligible Vodafone SuperMobile connection on your account. The Offer may be applied to a different connection from the one that triggered your eligibility or the main/billpayer connection. The connection receiving the Offer will be sent redemption instructions by SMS and/or email. 2.4 The Offer cannot be transferred to another account or exchanged for cash, credit or another benefit.

3. What's included?

3.1 You will receive HBO Max Standard with Ads at no additional monthly charge while you remain eligible.

3.2 No other HBO Max plans are included in the Offer. You may choose to change your plan to an eligible HBO Max plan through Vodafone and pay the difference between the plan included with this Offer and your chosen plan. Any HBO Max plan change will be subject to the applicable charges and any additional terms presented to you before you confirm the plan change.

3.3 HBO Max content and features may change and are subject to HBO Max's Terms of Use, content rights and technical requirements.

4. How to activate

4.1 You must activate the Offer through Vodafone's designated activation journey, which may be provided through Subs+ or a replacement platform notified by Vodafone.

4.2 You must create a valid HBO Max account, or sign in to an existing HBO Max account, to use the service.

5. How long the Offer lasts

5.1 The Offer will apply for the 24-month minimum contract period of the qualifying Vodafone SuperMobile connection to which the Offer is allocated, provided that you continue to meet the eligibility requirements in these terms. We will confirm during checkout which connection the Offer has been allocated to.

5.2 During that 24-month period, your HBO Max entitlement will continue provided that:

- (a) there are at least three active qualifying Vodafone SuperMobile plans on the same Vodafone account;
- (b) your account and the relevant plans remain active and in good standing;
- (c) the connection to which the Offer is allocated remains active and is not cancelled, disconnected or transferred to another account; and
- (d) you continue to meet the Vodafone Together eligibility requirements.

5.3 The Offer will end at the end of that 24-month minimum contract period, unless we expressly tell you otherwise. We will explain before the Offer ends what will happen to your HBO Max subscription and whether any charges will apply if you choose to continue it

6. If your eligibility ends

6.1 If you stop being eligible, your HBO Max entitlement may end.

6.2 The Offer will not automatically become a paid Vodafone charge-to-bill HBO Max subscription.

6.3 If you want to continue using HBO Max, you may need to take out a separate subscription under HBO Max's then-current Terms of Use and prices. This will require your express agreement.

6.4 The end of the HBO Max entitlement does not, by itself, end or change your Vodafone SuperMobile plans.

7. Changes to the Offer

7.1 We may amend, suspend, replace or withdraw the Offer where reasonably necessary, including for legal, regulatory, technical or operational reasons, or because of changes made by HBO Max.

7.2 Where appropriate, we will give you reasonable notice of a material change to or withdrawal of the Offer. Nothing in these terms affects your statutory rights.

8. Your Vodafone services

8.1 The Offer is a benefit linked to eligible Vodafone SuperMobile plans and Vodafone Together. It does not amend, replace or vary your Vodafone Airtime Agreement.

8.2 Your Vodafone SuperMobile plans remain subject to the applicable Vodafone Airtime Terms and Conditions, including provisions on charges, annual price increases, suspension, disconnection and termination.

9. HBO Max

9.1 HBO Max is provided by Discovery Communications Benelux B.V. Your use of HBO Max is subject to the HBO Max Terms of Use and its applicable privacy notice.

9.2 Vodafone does not control the programmes, films or other content available through HBO Max. Content and service features may change.

9.3 All third-party trade marks, service marks, logos and copyrights belong to their respective owners. All rights reserved.

10. General

10.1 Vodafone and HBO Max may each process personal data in accordance with their respective privacy notices.

10.2 These terms are governed by English law. This does not affect any rights you have under the law that applies in the part of the United Kingdom where you live.
