1. General:

- a. This Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy") covers your usage obligations for Vodafone Pay monthly or Pay as you go services (including internet in the Car 'IITC') (each, a "Service" and collectively the "Services") provided by Vodafone Group Plc, Vodafone Limited and/or their affiliates (together "Vodafone"). It forms part of your contract with us, along with your Pay monthly terms and charges guide, your Pay as you go terms and charges guide or IITC terms (whichever applicable).
- b. This policy sets out your usage obligations, what you can do to avoid breaching the policy and what happens if your usage is deemed to breach the policy. In this policy, a "User" or "Customer" means an individual end user of the Service.
- c. Any phrases introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular" or any similar expression are deemed to have the words "without limitation" following them and are construed as illustrative and do not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.
- d. You have an obligation to use our Services for private, personal, and legitimate purposes only. Your use of our Services should not exceed that reasonably expected of a reasonable person using them for these purposes.
- e. Failure to adhere to the policy may mean a loss of, or restriction to your service. Below is a non-exhaustive list of your obligations and the types of activity which you should avoid.

- b. If you're using the data in a way which we believe is harmful to our network or you are a Heavy User (as defined below) and you're using data during a peak period or a period of congestion, we may introduce certain traffic management measures such as
 - i) network deprioritisation which means that certain users' traffic will be deprioritised relative to other users,

 - iii) impose further charges on your account, or
 - iv) we may disconnect your SIM. We will attempt to notify you before any disconnection takes place.

More information on traffic management can be found on vodafone.co.uk/terms in the 'Traffic management' section.

Heavy User: You will be deemed to be a Heavy User if you exceed the relevant threshold of monthly data usage for two consecutive bill cycles. This data usage threshold is set out within our Traffic Management Key Facts Indicator. This threshold is updated from time to time in order to provide all customers with a good experience of the network.

- c. If you use unlimited data in a manner that may cause excessive congestion and damage to the Vodafone network: Vodafone reserve the right to monitor the amount of data you are using to identify whether you are using the unlimited data in a way that is contrary to this policy. Where Vodafone notices a Customer's data usage exceeds 600GB per month twice or more in a 6-month period, Vodafone may investigate whether your use of the Service is inconsistent with this policy. Following such an investigation, if we determine or reasonably suspect that your usage is for purposes other than the permitted use then Vodafone reserve the right to transfer you to a more suitable plan or take other action in line with this policy
